REAL ESTATE • NEW YORK

Founded in 2013, William J. Farmer is New York's first brokerage to specialize in executives and expats.

No brokerage is built for everyone. We are no exception. At William J. Farmer, we are dedicated to serving New York's most discerning population: executives and expats.

Our team instinctively anticipates every need, allowing us to seamlessly navigate the nuances of the buying and selling process.

In one of the most challenging markets in the world, we've successfully completed thousands of home searches for busy executives and expats with full disclosure and devotion.

OUR PHILOSOPHY:

The right team can make finding or selling a home simple.

Like yourself, our clients are remarkably busy. It's why we constantly rethink our process to make finding or selling a home faster and easier than any other brokerage. In New York, every move is different and New York's ever changing market can make the process hard to navigate. Our agents are experts at leading executives and expats through buying, renting or selling as painlessly as possible.

When buying or renting, our proven process clarifies and refines your desires quickly - finding you the most relevant properties without wasting anytime. At William J. Farmer, our agents continuously collaborate to provide up to the minute insights on the market, neighborhoods, buildings and vendors - ensuring your move is a smooth success.
